THE COKING COAL MINES (EMERGENCY PROVISIONS) ORDINANCE, 1971

No. 12 of 1971

Promulgated by the President in the Twenty-second Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance to provide for the taking over, in the public interest, of the management of coking coal mines pending nationalisation of such mines;

Whereas it is expedient in the public interest that the coking coal mines should be nationalised with a view to re-organising and reconstructing them for the purpose of protecting, conserving and promoting scientific development of the resources of coking coal needed to meet the growing requirements of the iron and steel industry;

And Whereas Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

Now, Therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Coking Coal Mines (Emergency Provisions) Ordinance, 1971.

(2) It shall come into force on the 17th day of October, 1971.

2. Definitions.—In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “appointed day” means the date on which this Ordinance comes into force;

(b) “coking coal mine” means a coal mine in which there exists one or more seams of coking coal, whether exclusively or in addition to any seam of other coal;

(c) “company” means a company as defined in section 3 of the Companies Act, 1956, and includes a foreign company within the meaning of section 591 of that Act;

1 of 1956

(d) “Custodian” means the person appointed under section 5 to take over the management of the coking coal mine;

(e) “Government company” has the meaning assigned to it by section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956;

1 of 1956

(f) “mine” means any excavation where any operation for the purpose of searching for or obtaining minerals has been or is being carried on and includes—

(i) all borings and bore holes;

(ii) all shafts, in or adjacent to and belonging to a mine whether in the course of being sunk or not;

(iii) all levels and inclined plans in the course of being driven;

(iv) all open cast workings;

(v) all conveyors or aerial ropeways provided for the bringing into or removal from a mine of minerals or other articles or for the removal of refuse therefrom;

(vi) all lands, buildings, works, adits, levels, planes, machinery and equipment, vehicles, railways, tramways and sidings, in or adjacent to and belonging to a mine;

(vii) all workshops belonging to a mine including buildings, machinery, instruments, stores, equipment of such workshops and the lands on which such workshops stand;

(viii) all coal in stock or in transit or under production, other stores and stocks and instruments belonging to a mine;

(ix) all power stations belonging to a mine or operated for supplying electricity for the purpose of working the mine or a number of mines under the same management;

(x) all land, buildings and equipment adjacent to or belonging to a mine where the washing of coal or manufacture of coke is carried on;

(xi) all other assets, movable or immovable, belonging to a mine, whether within its premises or outside;

(g) “mining company” means a company owning a coking coal mine, and in relation to a foreign company within the meaning of section 591 of the Companies Act, 1956, the undertaking of that company in India;

1 of 1956

(h) “notified order” means an order notified in the Official Gazette;

(i) words and expressions used herein but not defined, and defined in the Mines Act, 1952, or in the Coal Mines (Conservation, Safety and Development) Act, 1952, have the meanings respectively assigned to them in either of those Acts.

35 of 1952

12 of 1952

3. Management of coking coal mines to vest in Government on the appointed day.—(1) On and from the appointed day, the management of all coking coal mines shall vest in the Central Government.

(2) The coking coal mines specified in the Schedule shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Ordinance, to be the coking coal mines the management of which shall vest, under sub-section (1), in the Central Government:

Provided that if, after the appointed day, any other coal mine is found, after an investigation made by the Coal Board, to contain coking coal, that Board shall make a declaration to that effect and on and from the date of such declaration, such mine shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Ordinance, —

- (i) to vest in the Central Government; and
- (ii) to be included in the Schedule, and thereupon the provisions of this Ordinance shall become applicable thereto subject to the modification that for the words "appointed day", wherever they occur, the words "the date of the declaration made by the Coal Board under sub-section (2) of section 3" shall be substituted.

4. Management of coking coal mines pending the appointment of Custodian. — (1) Pending the appointment of a Custodian under section 5 for any coking coal mine, the person in charge of the management of such mine immediately before the appointed day shall, on and from the appointed day, be in charge of the management of such mine for and on behalf of the Central Government; and the management of such mine shall be carried on by such person subject to the provisions contained in sub-sections (3) and (5) and such directions, if any, as the Central Government may give to him and no other person including the owner, shall, so long as such management continues, exercise any powers of management in relation to the coking coal mine.

(2) Any contract, whether express or implied, providing for the management of any coking coal mine, made before the appointed day between the owner of such mine and any person in charge of the management of such mine immediately before the appointed day, shall be deemed to have terminated on the appointed day.

(3) No person in charge of the management of a coking coal mine shall, without the previous approval of the person specified by the Central Government in this behalf in respect of that mine (hereinafter referred to as the "authorised person"), —

(a) incur any expenditure from the assets appertaining to the coking coal mine otherwise than for the purpose of making routine payments of salaries or commissions to employees, agents or for the purpose of meeting the routine day to day expenditure;

(b) transfer or otherwise dispose of any such assets or create any charge, hypothecation, lien or other encumbrance thereon;

(c) invest in any manner any monies forming part of such assets;

(d) acquire any immovable property out of the monies forming part of such assets;

(e) enter into any contract of service or agency, whether expressly or by implication, for purposes connected wholly or partly with the coking coal mine or vary the terms and conditions of any contract relating to any such transaction subsisting on the appointed day.

(4) The approval of the authorised person may be given either generally in relation to certain classes of transactions relating to the coking coal mine or specially in relation to any of its transactions.

(5) Every person in charge of the management of a coking coal mine shall deposit all securities and documents of title to any assets appertaining to such mine in any Scheduled Bank or Nationalised Bank in which the owner or agent had an account immediately before the appointed day or in any branch of the State Bank in the place where the head office or the principal office of the coking coal mine is situated or, where there is no branch of the State Bank in such place, the nearest branch of the State Bank; and no such security or document shall be withdrawn from the Scheduled Bank, the Nationalised Bank or the State Bank, as the case may be, except with the permission of the authorised person:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to any security or document of title kept in trust with an Official Trustee in pursuance of the articles of association of any mining company unless the Central Government, by notified order, otherwise directs.

Explanation. — In this sub-section, —

(a) "Scheduled Bank" means a bank included for the time being in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934;

2 of 1934

(b) "State Bank" means the State Bank of India constituted under the State Bank of India Act, 1955;

23 of 1955

(c) "Nationalised Bank" means a corresponding new bank as defined in the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970.

5 of 1970

(6) Every person in charge of the management of a coking coal mine shall deliver forthwith to the person specified in this behalf by the Central Government in respect of that coking coal mine, the following documents, namely: —

(a) the minutes book or any other book in India containing all resolutions up to the appointed day of the persons in charge of the management of the coking coal mine before the appointed day;

(b) the current cheque books relating to the undertaking which are at the head office or the principal office of the coking coal mine;

(c) all registers or other books containing particulars relating to the investment of any moneys appertaining to the coking coal mine including investments on mortgaged properties and all loans granted or advances made.

(7) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) and the provisions contained in sub-sections (3), (5) and (6), any direction issued under sub-section (1) may require the persons in charge of the management of the coking coal mine under this Ordinance to furnish to the Central Government or to the authorised persons such returns, statements and other informations relating to the coking coal mine as may be mentioned in the direction.

(8) The persons in charge of the management of the coking coal mine under this Ordinance shall be entitled to such remuneration, whether by way of allowance or salary or perquisites which the Central Government may fix; and any such person may, by giving one month's notice in writing to the Central Government of his intention so to do, relinquish charge of the management of the coking coal mine.

5. Power of Central Government to appoint Custodians to take over the management of coking coal mines. — (1) The Central Government may, as soon as it is convenient administratively so to do, appoint any person as Custodian for the purpose of taking over the management of the coking coal mine and the person so appointed shall carry on the management of such mine for and on behalf of the Central Government.

(2) The Central Government may also appoint a person as the Custodian-General for exercising supervision and control over all the coking coal mines, the management of which is taken over under this Ordinance, and on such appointment, every Custodian, appointed under sub-section (1), shall act under the guidance, control and supervision of the Custodian-General.

(3) On the appointment of a Custodian under sub-section (1), the charge of management of the coking coal mine shall vest in him and all persons in charge of the management of such mine immediately before such appointment shall cease to be in charge of such management and shall be bound to deliver to the Custodian all assets, books of account, registers or other documents in their custody relating to the coking coal mine.

(4) Nothing contained in section 4 shall apply to any coking coal mine the management of which has been taken over by the Custodian, but the Central Government may issue such directions to the Custodian as to his powers and duties as it deems desirable in the circumstances of the case, and the Custodian may apply to the Central Government at any time for instructions as to the manner in which he shall conduct the management of the coking coal mine or in relation to any matter arising in the course of such management.

(5) The Custodian shall receive from the funds of the coking coal mine for the charge of management of which he is appointed under sub-section (1) such remuneration as the Central Government may fix.

(6) The Custodian and the Custodian-General shall hold office during the pleasure of the Central Government.

6. Payment of compensation. — (1) Every owner of a coking coal mine shall be given by the Central Government compensation, in cash, for vesting in it, under section 3, the management of such mine.

(2) For every month during which the management of the coking coal mine remains vested in the Central Government, the amount of compensation referred to in sub-section (1) shall be twenty-five paise per tonne of coal on the average monthly production of coal from such mine during the calendar years 1968, 1969 and 1970.

7. Penalties. — If any person —

(a) fails to deliver to the Custodian any assets, books of account, registers or any other documents in his custody relating to the coking coal mine in respect of the management of which the Custodian has been appointed, or

(b) retains any property of such coking coal mine, or

(c) fails to comply with the provisions contained in sub-section (3) or sub-section (5) or sub-section (6) of section 4, or

(d) fails to comply with any directions issued under sub-section (1) or sub-section (4) of section 5, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, or with both.

8. Mining companies not to be wound up by Court. — No proceeding for the winding up of a mining company, the management of whose coking coal mines have vested in the Central Government under this Ordinance or for the appointment of a Receiver in respect of such business, shall lie in any court.

9. Exclusion of time of Ordinance for computing period of limitation. — In computing the period of limitation prescribed by law for the time being in force for any suit or application against any person by a mining company in respect of any matter arising out of any transaction in relation to the coking coal mine, the time during which this Ordinance is in force shall be excluded.

10. Effect of Ordinance on other laws. — The provisions of this Ordinance shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any instrument having effect by virtue of any law other than this Ordinance.

11. Delegation of powers. — The Central Government may, by notified order, direct that all or any of the powers exercisable by it under this Ordinance may also be exercised by any person or persons as may be specified in the order.

12. Protection of action taken in good faith. — (1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Custodian-General, any Custodian or authorised person in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Ordinance.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or the Custodian-General, any Custodian or authorised person for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Ordinance.

13. Contracts in bad faith may be cancelled or varied. — The Custodian of a coking coal mine, the management of which has been taken over by the Central Government under this Ordinance, may make an application to the Court having jurisdiction in this behalf for the purpose of cancelling or varying any contract or agreement entered into at any time before the appointed day between the owner or agent of a coking coal mine and any other person, and the Court may, if satisfied after due inquiry that such contract or agreement has been entered into in bad faith and is detrimental to the interests of the coking coal mine, make an order cancelling or varying (either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose) the contract or agreement and the contract or agreement shall have effect accordingly.

14. Power to terminate contract of employment. — Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any contract or in any other law for the time being in force, if the Custodian is of opinion that any contract of employment entered into by any owner or agent of a coking coal mine, at any time before the appointed day, is unduly onerous, he may, by giving to the employee one month's notice in writing or the salary or wages for one month in lieu thereof, terminate such contract of employment.

15. Power to make rules. — (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Gazette, make rules to carry out the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the manner in which the coking coal mines be managed by the Custodians, under the supervision and control of a Custodian-General;

(b) the constitution of a Board of Management, by whatever name called, for advising the Custodian-General in the management of the coking coal mines;

(c) the form and manner in which accounts of the coking coal mines shall be maintained;

(d) the manner in which any compensation payable under this Ordinance shall be dealt with by an owner;

(e) any other matter in relation to which such rule is required to be, or may be, made.

16. Coking coal mines to which the Ordinance shall not apply. — Nothing in this Ordinance shall apply to any coking coal mine —

(a) owned or managed by a Government company or a corporation owned or controlled by Government;

(b) owned or managed by a company engaged in the production of iron or steel:

Provided that this section shall not extend to such mine or part thereof which, in the opinion of the Central Government, is in excess of the requirement for the production of iron and steel by that company.

Notification

1-134-71-LSG

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 308 read with section 259 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Municipalities Act, 1968 (No. 7 of 1969) and all other powers enabling him in that behalf the Lt. Governor of Goa, Daman and Diu hereby makes the following Model Bye-laws and publish the same for the guidance of the Municipal Councils.

Short title: The bye-laws may be called the Bake-house Bye-laws, 1971.

Bye-law 1. A licence for using any premises in the municipal area as a bakery shall be in the Form appended hereto.

Bye-law 2. The fee for the licence shall be rupees per annum and shall be payable in advance.

Bye-law 3. If the licence is refused, the Chief Officer shall give the reasons why it was refused and the licensee shall have the right to make an appeal to the Council within days of the receipt of the order by him of such refusal.

Bye-law 4. The licence shall expire at the end of the financial year whatever may be the date of its issue.

Bye-law 5. If a licence is lost, destroyed, defaced or torn, the licensee shall forthwith apply to the Chief Officer for the grant of a duplicate licence. The fee for a duplicate licence shall be rupee one. The licence so issued shall bear the stamp "Duplicate" and the date of the issue.

Bye-law 6. The conditions of the licence issued under bye-law 1 shall be as shown below:—

- (1) No water-closet or privy shall be within, or communicate directly with the bakery in respect of which the licence is granted (hereinafter called the "bake-house").
- (2) Every cistern for supplying water to the bake-house shall be separate and distinct from any cistern for supplying water to a watercloset.

- (3) A drain or pipe for carrying faecal or sewage water shall not have an opening within the bake-house.
- (4) The floors, wall and ceiling shall be finished to a hard smooth surface impervious to moisture.
- (5) The bake-house shall be lime-washed 3 times in a year in the months of January, May and September.
- (6) The baking shall be carried on in a detached building and not inside any chawl or a dwelling house.
- (7) The room in which baking is carried on shall be airy lighted, and well ventilated and shall not have any windows or ventilation openings abutting on sweeper's passage.
- (8) The furnace in connection with any oven shall be provided with an efficient out-let or flue which shall be carried up to a sufficient height and so placed as to prevent nuisance from smoke to the occupants of neighbouring buildings.
- (9) A separate room shall be provided for the storage of flour and other articles.
- (10) All dough, troughs and kneading tables shall be thoroughly cleaned with hot water and soap immediately after use and shall at all times be kept in a cleanly condition.
- (11) All articles of food after being baked shall be stored in a place so closed as to protect them from contamination or infection from impure air or offensive, noxious or deleterious gas or substance.
- (12) No person shall sleep in any part of the bake-house, as sit or recline on any table or other structure in the bake-house, which is used for the preparation of flour for baking. No room on the same level as the bake-house and forming part of the same building shall be used as a sleeping place unless effectually separated from the bake-house by a masonry partition extending from the floor to the ceiling.

(13) Every person employed in the bake-house shall wash his hands with soap and water before handling any article of food which has been or is to be prepared for the human consumption; a supply of water and soap for the purpose shall be provided in a place inside or adjoining the bake-house.

(14) Every person employed in the bake-house shall at all times be dressed in clean clothing.

(15) The utmost cleanliness shall be observed in the various processes of bread making and the premises and appliances shall be kept in a thoroughly clean and sanitary condition.

(16) A licence is valid only for the premises specified in the licence, and if the licensee desires to carry on such trade or any operation connected therewith, in any additional room, godown or space, he must apply for a fresh licence.

(17) If the licensee vacates or gives up possession of the premises during the period of the licence, he shall forthwith inform the Chief Officer of the same.

(18) A licence is not transferable either as regards the person to whom or the premises for which it is granted without the written permission of the Chief Officer.

(19) The licensee shall cause such licence to be affixed in some conspicuous part of the bake-house.

(20) A licence shall be liable to suspension or revocation, and the premises shall be liable to be closed temporarily if the licensed premises are so kept, or any process or operation connected with it is so carried on, as to be in the opinion of the Chief Officer a source of nuisance or danger to life, health or property.

(21) The licensee shall, at all hours, while the bake-house is open allow the Municipal Officers, or servants authorised by the Council to enter the premises, and afford every facility for inspecting the place and also the vessels, articles of food or the furniture, and shall comply with the directions that the Officer may give in writing for securing cleanliness, light and air.

(22) The licensee shall, at all times during the continuance of the licence be responsible for the due fulfilment and observance of all the conditions of the licence and in case of any infringement of, or neglect or failure on the part of the licensee or any agent or other person employed, to fulfil or observe any of the said conditions, the licensee shall be liable to prosecution.

FORM OF LICENCE

(See bye-law 1)

Licence is hereby granted for the use of the premises in the Municipal area as a bakery on payment of a fee of Rupees per annum, subject to the bye-laws and the conditions printed on the reverse.*

If the licence is to be renewed an application for the same shall be made before the end of the month of February of the year in which the period of the licence expires.

Chief Officer,
